The Heartbeat Dixieland Jazz Band has been performing throughout Connecticut for more than 10 years, including regular appearances at Oliver's Tavern in Essex, The Yankee Clipper in Niantic and area jazz festivals.

Heartbeat's music covers the spectrum of jazz history and includes a variety of musical styles from ragtime and New Orleans Dixieland to swing and gospel, with a little boogie-woogie thrown in.

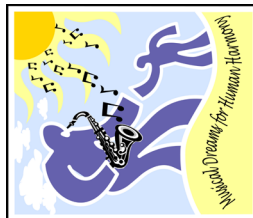

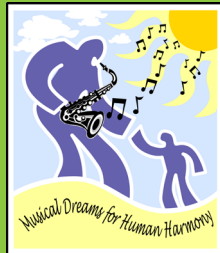

Heartbeat's concert lineup includes some of New England's most proficient jazz musicians: Dr. John Clark (saxophone), Jeff Hughes (cornet), Sherman Kahn (reeds), Ben Griffin (trombone), Skip Hughes (trombone/vocals), Albie Bernard (tuba), Gim Burton (banjo), Shari Lucas (keyboard), and Heartbeat band leader, Bill Logozzo (drums).

Heartbeat has teamed up with some great "stars" and our special guest host, Jimmy Jay — DJ of the Stars, for an afternoon of unique entertainment...all for a good cause.

This is an afternoon you will not want to miss! Don't wait... get your tickets today. This show will sell out.

See inside for more information and how to order your tickets!

This concert is presented under the auspices of Musical Dreams For Human Harmony. Its mission is to earn funds through musical productions and programs for the purpose of helping people with specific medical needs and/or handicaps. Concerts are presented to achieve the highest donation rate, through minimal expenses and volunteer labor.

Ronnie Spector

The embodiment of the heart, soul and passion of female rock and roll in the 1960s ("Be My Baby," "Walking in the Rain," "Baby I Love You")

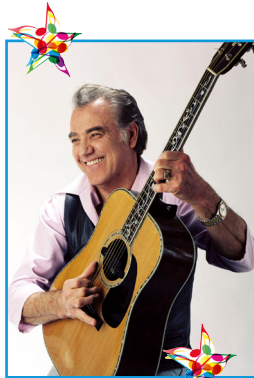

Only a few artists in history have been capable of defining an entire era in pop music. Ronnie Spector is one of those artists: the embodiment of the heart, soul, and passion of female rock and roll in the 1960s. And to this day, no one has ever surpassed Ronnie's powerful trademark vocals, her gutsy attitude, or her innocent but knowing sexuality. For these qualities and more, Ronnie Spector and the Ronettes, were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in March 2007.

Jimmie Rodgers

Singer, Composer, Stage Artist, Actor, TV Personality and Author

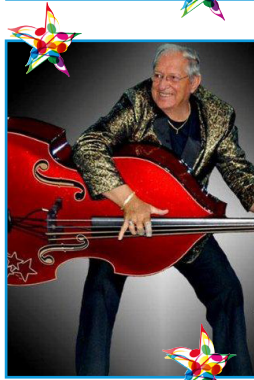

You know this 50s and 60s sensation from hits like Honeycomb, Kisses Sweeter Than Wine, Secretly, Bimbombey, It's Over, Child of Clay and multiple other hits. Jimmie's career eventually encompassed over 450 recorded songs, his own television shows and motion pictures.

Marshall Lytle

Bassist of the Original Bill Haley's Comets ("Rock Around the Clock") and The Jodimars

Marshall Lytle, a 2012 inductee into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame, is one of the musical pioneers that shook the world with rock and roll in the 1950's. He can still raise an upright bass over his left shoulder and pluck the strings with his right hand.

Michelle Berting

Canadian Singer and Actor

Originally from Saskatchewan and now living in the U.S., Michelle recently recorded with music legend Ronnie Hawkins. She continues to tour with "The Man in Black" show in the U.S. and Canada and stars in the concert show "Close to You: The Songs of the Carpenters" set to launch in the U.S. this year.

Proceeds Benefit:

The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp

Founded in 1988 by Paul Newman and named for the outlaw hiding place from his film Butch Cassidy and The Sundance Kid, The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp is a nonprofit, year-round center serving children and their families coping with cancer, sickle cell anemia, and other serious illnesses. Through summer sessions and family weekend programs at the Camp in Ashford, Connecticut, and year-round outreach to hospitals and clinics throughout the Northeast, the Camp will serve 20,000 children and their families in 2012. All services are free of charge.

For more information about The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp, visit www.holeinthewallgang.org.

Channel 3 Kids Camp

Each year over 4,000 children ages 6-16 from Connecticut and areas throughout New England attend the Channel 3 Kids Camp in Andover, CT. The unique program welcomes boys and girls from all walks of life, especially those who do not have the financial ability to experience the joys and value of a high quality camp program. Channel 3 Kids Camp offers traditional day and overnight summer camp, Camp Venture's (an afterschool program), and a year-round teen leadership program. The Kids Camp also hosts Nature's Classroom, Siblings Connections — reuniting siblings in foster care, and partners with Camp Abilities to provide camping experiences to children who are visually impaired, blind or deaf blind.

The Kids Camp is currently expanding facilities in anticipation of opening the 'Camp for all Kids' by 2013. The new cabin named Ashley's Place will accommodate children of varying abilities with a 24-hour nurse and health area. The Channel 3 Kids Camp is a sanctuary for children all year long regardless of economic, physical or developmental ability to come play, learn and grow without barriers.

For more information about the Channel 3 Kids Camp, visit www.channel3kidscamp.org.
